Mr. Charles A. Bane
Isham, Lincoln and Beale
72 West Adams Street
Chicago 3, Illinois

Dear Charlie:

Many thanks for your thoughtful letter of 8 March.

As I told Mr. Wilcox, I have been studying my schedule of commitments to see if I might be able to address the Chicago Council on Foreign Affairs. Unfortunately, I find that there just does not seem to be any possibility of my getting out to Chicago, much as I would like to do so. However, I sincerely appreciate your continued interest in having me talk to your organization and I am sorry that my reply cannot be more favorable.

With warm regards,

Everett,

Allen W. Dulles
Director

The Honorable Allen W. Dulles
Director, Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, 25, D.C.

Dear Allen:

When I wrote to you previously in November, 1960, issuing an invitation to you to come to Chicago to speak before the Council on Foreign Relations, you were kind enough to indicate that you might be able to tell in March what your program for the immediate future would look like.

The Council wishes to renew its invitation to you and hopes that you might find it possible to address a meeting some time in May. Almost any date that would be convenient to you would be one on which the Council could arrange to schedule a meeting.

As I mentioned before, the Council's membership is such that we think we can guarantee you a large and informed audience, anxious to hear you discuss almost any topic in the field of foreign relations which you would care to choose.

Sincerely,

Charles A. Bane
